THE KONICA MINOLTA SPORTS AWARDS PROCESS

Overview

Sport New Brunswick is a bilingual non-profit, volunteer organization dedicated to the development and promotion of the amateur sport community in New Brunswick. It is a federation that consists of 55 provincial sport organizations and other sport related organizations. In addition, Sport New Brunswick manages the annual Konica Minolta Sports Awards.

Review

In 2012, Sport New Brunswick reviewed its nomination and selection processes in light of the growing profile of the Konica Minolta Sports Awards to ensure that they met best practices. Each year, Sport New Brunswick will review the guidelines.

Process

Each year, Sport New Brunswick sends out a Call for Nominations for the upcoming Konica Minolta Sports Awards. The call goes out to the members of Sport New Brunswick and their affiliates.

Any person that meets the current Konica Minolta Sports Awards eligibility criteria may be entered for consideration. Eligible entries, other than the Volunteer Sport Administrator Award and the Lifetime Volunteer Achievement Award, are for achievements, performances, stories, or contributions that take place from September 1, 2017 to September 30, 2018.

Upon receipt, Sport New Brunswick reviews each nomination to ensure eligibility requirements are met and identifies any concerns, inconsistencies or missing information before being forwarded to the Selection Committee.

The selection committee is made up of individuals from across New Brunswick that agrees to sit for a maximum of 2 consecutive years (staggered system to provide for continuity). Once the selection committee has submitted their votes, Sport New Brunswick tabulates the ballots and the finalists are publicly announced. The winners will be announced at the Annual Konica Minolta Sports Awards.

Awards Finalists

Provincial Sport Organizations and/or the nominator are responsible for the travel, accommodation and dinner ticket costs of the finalists and winners.

Sport New Brunswick provides one trophy per category. Additional trophies may be purchased at cost for other winners, please contact Sport New Brunswick.

AWARD CATEGORIES

It is the nominating person's responsibility to accurately select the categories entered. Sport New Brunswick, in consultation with the nominating person, may alter these selections.

Awards are intended to recognize and celebrate the outstanding accomplishments of the New Brunswick sport community in 2017-2018. Please note the following:

- There are no restrictions on the number of entries a nominating person/organization may enter.
- Previous recipients can be nominated even if they have won in previous years.
- An athlete may be entered in more than one category if the athlete competes in more than one event (e.g. sprinter can be nominated for Male Athlete of the Year for individual performance and for team if competing in the relay).

1. Westmont Hospitality Group Female Athlete of the Year

To be presented annually to New Brunswick's outstanding female athlete of the year.

2. Westmont Hospitality Group Male Athlete of the Year

To be presented annually to New Brunswick's outstanding male athlete of the year.

3. President's Award

To be presented to one male and one female athlete that exemplifies the spirit and future of sport in New Brunswick. Athletes must be under 19 years of age (as of the nomination deadline) and cannot be carded. An athlete recognized by his National Sport Federation and/or International Federation as a junior athlete is eligible in this category. This also includes junior athletes competing in senior or open events.

4. Boston Pizza Female Coach of the Year

To be presented annually to New Brunswick's outstanding female coach of the year.

5. Boston Pizza Male Coach of the Year

To be presented annually to New Brunswick's outstanding male coach of the year.

6. BrunNet Team of the Year

To be presented annually to New Brunswick's outstanding team of the year.

The following definitions of a "Team" shall apply:

- a) Two athletes competing together as "Pairs" or "Doubles". i.e., Figure Skating Pairs, Tennis Doubles, Synchronized Swimming Pairs etc.
- b) Two or more athletes competing in an event that are part of a team. i.e., Medley Relay Swim Team, Rowing Eight's etc.
- c) A team comprised of athletes that compete together in one sport, and one event.

2018 KONICA MINOLTA SPORTS AWARDS GUIDELINES

- 7. Official of the Year
To be presented to the outstanding official in a particular sport or sports during the past year.
- 8. Volunteer Sport Administrator Award
To be presented to the volunteer who has made an outstanding contribution to a sport or sport in general within New Brunswick during the past several years.
- 9. Outstanding Media Coverage
To be presented annually to a member of the New Brunswick media who has demonstrated excellence in broadcasting and/or reporting on amateur sport in New Brunswick.
- 10. Corporate Award
The Corporate Award will be presented to the corporation deemed to have made the most significant contribution to the development of Sport in New Brunswick in the past year.
- 11. Lifetime Volunteer Achievement Award
To be presented to the volunteer who has made continuing outstanding contributions and offered valuable support to sport or sports in New Brunswick over an extended period of time.
- 12. Teed Saunders Doyle & Co Spirit of Sport Award
The Spirit of Sport Award celebrates the core positive values in sport: respect; honesty; fair play; discipline; commitment; and effort. It is a type of sport where athletes are measured by the quality of their effort as much as they are by their achievements.

To be presented to an individual or team from any level of sport.
Nominations can be made on behalf of individual athletes, teams, coaches, officials, parents, league organizers, volunteers or other sport leaders.

This award is bestowed only for exemplary behaviour. The Selection Committee reserves the right not to present this award should they feel there are no worthy candidates nominated.

From the nominations the Selection Committee may select up to three winners for the Spirit of Sport Award.

THE SELECTION PROCESS

How the Selection Committee is selected

- i) Selection Committee members can only judge for a maximum of two (2) consecutive years. Names are kept confidential to limit the risk of influencing the deliberations and voting procedures.
- ii) Individuals or corporations nominated for an award are not eligible to sit on the jury.
- iii) Jury members that may be affiliated with an individual or organization nominated for an award must declare this conflict and abstain from voting in the specified category.
- iv) The following principles must be adhered to when developing the composition of the jury: gender, language, and geographic representation.
- v) The Chief Executive Officer, or a designate of the Sport New Brunswick, acts as ex officio member for the jury.
- vi) The jury may discuss the eligible candidates amongst themselves, however individual ballots are secret.
- vii) All jury deliberations are confidential. Sport New Brunswick does not reveal the names of the jury. The jury may not reveal any details pertaining to the specifics of the selection process nor discuss the selection screenings.
- viii) Ballots are secret and will be sent directly from the jury member's site to Sport New Brunswick to be tabulated.
- ix) All results remain confidential until the envelopes are opened at the Konica Minolta Sports Awards.

2018 KONICA MINOLTA SPORTS AWARDS GUIDELINES

How the voting process works

- i) Nominations are received by Sport New Brunswick and checked for completeness and eligibility.
- ii) Sport New Brunswick distributes a copy of each nomination to each jury member.
- iii) The jury records their points for each nominee and submits their results to Sport New Brunswick.
- iv) The nominee with the highest points is given a 1st ranking, 2nd highest points a 2nd place ranking, and so on.
- v) Sport New Brunswick tabulates all the results.
- vi) The top three (3) candidates, if applicable, in each category are publicly announced as the finalists.
- vii) The winners are announced at the Konica Minolta Sports Awards.

Tied Nominations

The rule for tied nominations will be applied as follows: If there is a tie, the number of first place votes determines the winner. If a tie continues, then the number of second place votes will be counted to determine the winner, and so forth.
